Wahe Guru.... Wahe Guru

Bodh at Gurubhoomi of Punjab

26th and 27th October 2013 will be earmarked as golden days in the history of Punjab, the sacred bhoomi of five rivers and then Gurus, as generations down the line shall remember how our Great Master and genuine friend Dadashreeji chose to come and bless the town of Moga in Punjab with his sacred divine presence.

The Sikhs of Punjab who follow the teachings of their 10 Gurus, who showed the path to salvation, had tears rolling down their eyes when they saw Dadashreeji enter the first morning session with a turban. As people of Punjab are used to seeing their Gurus in a Turban (which signifies the spiritual crown and acts a constant reminder to the Sikh that he is sitting on the throne of consciousness), our Dadashreeji adorned and glowing in a saffron turban reminded them of their Masters and they could easily relate Dadashreeji as one of their own Gurus.

120 participants from various cities of Punjab, flowed warmly, openly accepting the abundant grace by Dadashreeji. Each person flowed with natural ease and simplicity, understanding the journey of soul, the need of a Living Master as per present times, the sutra of Karma, meditation session, the core qualities towards Truth and Light, finally ending with the combination of Shakthi and Bhakti Pravaah. As Dadashreeji transferred energy, the soulful melodious voice of Lavanyaji took everyone into a state of devotion and joy.

The most beautiful part of our Punjab experience was the warmth and love that was expressed by one and all. There was a natural camaraderie, friendship and bonding that embodied the essence of the 'MaitriBodh Parivaar'. The hospitality shown by sevaks of Punjab was humbling and truly in keeping with the tradition of 'Atithi Devo Bhava'.

It was a memorable experience for all as participants experienced unconditional love, humility, Sewa, Satkar, Simplicity and Abundant Grace.

" Wahe Guru Wahe Guru...Aise Guru Par Bal Bal Jajeye..... Wahe Guru Wahe Guru..."
Glory to our Master!

DUSSHERA BHET

13th October' 13 | Mumbai

On the auspicious occasion of Dusshera, a special event was organized for BODH participants and their family members, in the presence of our guiding light DADASHREEJI.

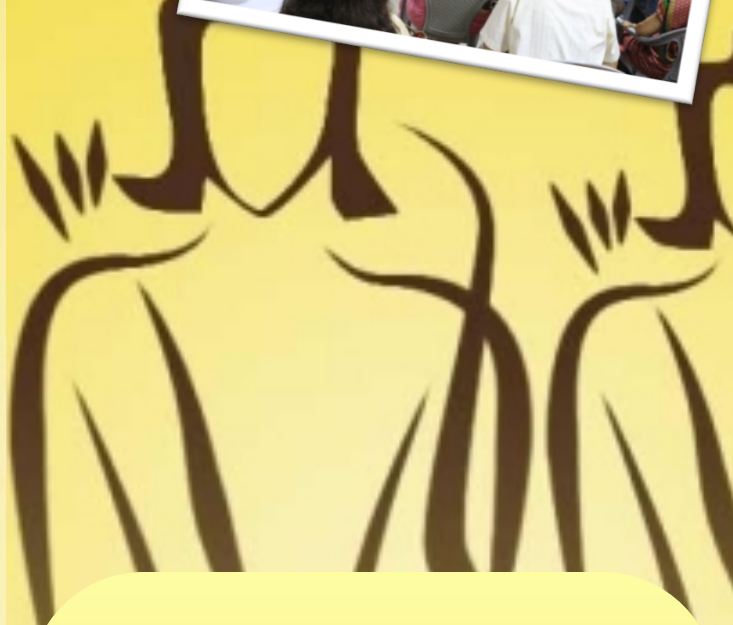

Dusshera commemorates the triumph of good over evil and an atmosphere of festivity & worship prevails all over. The event started with Maitreyi Sulataji explaining the importance of Dusshera, with her words touching people's hearts She created a wonderful ambience to welcome our Master.

Dadashreeji's presence stilled everyone and reconnected Bodh participants, opening up their hearts, while some of the new family members had a beautiful opportunity to see and experience the Master for the first time. Dadashreeji's discourse had a mystifying effect on all, as HE explained the importance of spirituality in our lives and going a step beyond Bodh, which was just a beginning of a journey.

HE stressed on having a 'Disha' direction, without losing any hope, to have that eagerness, with a positive restlessness to reach God, and most important to serve and always be in a 'giving sacrificial mode', which will accelerate our journey to regain our original true nature.

A 'Dhyana' process was conducted by Mitra Parnaji, in the presence of the Master, which led the seekers to such a wonderful state, with no words to express the experiences. Eventually, each seeker was given a Bhet (gift) directly from the lotus hands of the Master.

(Each participant was initially asked to get a gift for an unknown devotee, which was eventually re-distributed amongst all the seekers). Thus concluded a wondrous process, with the beginning of a new festive period filled with love & grace of Dadashreeji & Mahavatar Babaji.

YGPT meeting with Dadashreeji in Matheran

20th Oct' 13

Amidst the serenity and peace within the forest of Matheran, a most incredible meeting and teaching session was held in the presence of Dadashreeji, for the YGPT members. It took us back to the traditional Gurukul days, with the same feel and ambience. The meeting was to take further the course of YGPT events and with that in mind YGPT had decided to have a weekly 'AUM' chanting session in various parts of Mumbai. AUM is the Sound of the Universe and if chanted the right way, can have positive effects and countless benefits for one's own growth. This was a historic moment as Dadashreeji personally taught various ways of chanting AUM, explaining each and every step to its core. We were all convinced that this would be a beginning of a huge leap in near future, marking a wave of transformation.

Maitri Yatra - On 2nd October 2013

On the auspicious occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, a peace rally - Maitri Yatra was carried out in Mumbai & Delhi simultaneously.

AT MUMBAI

The goal of this Maitri Yatra is to spread the message of peace, love and universal brotherhood, through a peace rally, wherein other spiritual organizations would also join hands eventually aiming to unite all positive forces together, to create a wave of transformation towards universal peace. In Mumbai, the event was almost entirely taken care by the newly formed group YGPT (Youth for Global Peace & Transformation) under the grace of guiding light Dadashreeji. YGPT put in lots of efforts, with great enthusiasm to make this event a success and the results proved their hard work. About 100 people turned up, with few devotees from Pune/ Mumbai, who were followers of Babaji.

A beautiful Rath with Mahavatar Babaji's SriMurti, adorned with flowers and garland followed the yatra people. Flyers describing the importance of this yatra, with blessings of the Masters were distributed to people en-route, from Azad Maidan to Gateway of India, where finally a human chain was created. The motto of MaitriBodh Parivaar was read aloud by all, at the end "Peace within me is peace within you, peace within you is peace within many, Peace within many is peace in the Nature, Peace in the nature is peace in the world." Thus appropriately concluded this Peace March.

AT DELHI

Society, today is strife torn and has lost its direction. It is at its lowest ebb, with lack of moral values, intolerance, anger, violence etc being the order of the day. Mahaavtaar Babaji and Dadashreeji's mission is to spread the message of love and peace and thereby transform society. The Maitri Yatra was organised at Delhi too on the same day. The Mahatma was himself an epitome for non violence and peace, and this enhanced the significance of the peace march on this day.

The Maitri Yatra in Delhi started from Sanatan Dharam Mandir at Kirti Nagar and concluded at Gurudwara Fateh Nagar. Mitra Pravesh was responsible for organising the Yatra.

Many people enquired about the yatra and supported the cause even if they did not participate in the march. All the Mitras, Maitreys and Sevaks assembled at the Mandir at 7 a.m. The chariot carrying Babaji's Shrimurti was beautifully decorated with flowers. Aarti was performed by the Temple priest, which was followed by chanting of Babaji Mantra and Dadashreeji Mantra. The yatra proceeded from the Mandir at about 8 am with everybody chanting Guru Mantra. Apart from the banners, the yatrias carried placards conveying the message of love and peace. From Kirti Nagar the yatra proceeded to Fateh Nagar, passing through Ramesh Nagar, Raja Garden, Rajouri Garden, Tagore Garden, Subhash Nagar, Tilak Nagar culminating at Gurudwara Fateh Nagar at 11.30am. The yatra was extremely peaceful and all experienced the Master's energy. At the Gurudwara everybody offered their pranams and sat down in 'Dhyana' soaking in the energy of the place. Langar was offered after the prayers and as always it was a Divine experience. The presence of the Masters was felt all along. All Faiths teach us about love and peace. They all lead to the same destination - the all pervading Supreme Power GOD.
