Diwali celebration at Acworth leprosy home, Mumbai – 2nd Nov 2013

It was a most touching experience for the YGPT & MaitriBodh Parivaar members, to spend 2 hours with the quarantined patients of leprosy in this hospital, who were away from their homes with a lonely heart, while the whole world was rejoicing in festivity. The event with members gathering at rangoli completion, conducted in one of the halls. 4 of the best of the rangolis were selected as prizewinners, although each of them was unique and beautiful. After this, the members visited all the 5 shelters of stay of the patients (there were around 100 of them). Each one was given sweets, with Diwali wishes, which touched the members, more than the patients as they blessed them all the way, some with tears in their eyes. After this, most of these patients gathered at an open hall, where they were addressed by one of the mitras, to mainly express gratitude, thanking them for accepting them and their love & blessings. This was followed by prize distribution and prayer chantings, with Babaji & Dadashreeji mantras

Maitri Session - Delhi Center

Maitri session was conducted in Delhi centre for the first time on 18 November 2013. It was Kartik poornima, one of the most auspicious day of the Hindu calender, also coinciding with Guru Nanak Jayanti. The gathering of devotees consisted of about 25-30 people. Maitreyi Akanksha led the session. The session began with introductions and sharing of experiences from the older participants. The Masters' presence was invoked by chanting Guru mantra and Babaji mantra and this was followed by meditation and finally the Aarti.

During the meditation everyone experienced the vibrations - the powerful presence of the Masters. It was as if everyone present was resonating on the same plane. The Masters Grace was pouring and all were receiving it like empty vessels.

Like the waters of all the rivers and rivulets merge into Mother Ganga, it was Ganga snaan in every sense and that too on Kartik poornima. The session was very profound and each one attending it experienced the Bliss and Aananda.

Budding Bliss at The Earth Saviour Foundation, Delhi

Children's Day was celebrated with the 100 children who come to study at Earth Saviour Foundation, Vasant Kunj, Delhi on 9th November. A mini fete was organized which included a lot of interesting games, tattoo making and a Magic Show.

The day started with explaining reason for celebrating the children's day followed by an excellent Magic Show. The children were surprised and clapped and laughed at the pigeon coming out from the bottle, things getting disappeared and rolls of paper, balls appearing from the magician's mouth.

After this children got ready to play games. There were counters of Feed the joker, wheel of fortune and hoopla. All the children participated and played games with enthusiasm and won prizes.

Tattoo making was a big hit and almost every child got a tattoo of their choice made on their hands and cheeks. Butterflies and flowers were the favorite tattoos. After around 2 hours of fun, snack boxes were distributed. It was really a fun filled day for all.

Blood Donation Camp, Mumbai

A mega blood donation camp was organized on 26.11.13 to commemorate and pay homage to the deceased of the terrorist attack in Mumbai (which had happened on 26.11.2008). It was a proud moment as our YGPT members came forward to take part and volunteer in this camp, spreading love and peace message of our Mission, with the grace of Dadashreeji and Babaji.

A Transforming Meet

Raghunath Mohapatra, a doyen of stone sculpture and a Padma Vibhushan, met our living Guide Dadashreeji on 10th November at Premgiri Ashram, with an agenda to decide on various ShreeMurtis and other stone sculptors for our Shaktipeetham & ashram.

Mr Mohapatra has been conferred upon several awards right from childhood, and his ancestors are said to have created the world famous Konark Temple and the 12th century-old Shri Jagannath Temple at Puri. What we saw as this great, senior personality encountered Dadashreeji was one of the most touching experiences, as he fell at the Master's feet saying that since the time he arrived in Mumbai, there was this inner calling to meet Dadashreeji and that it was HE, who has called him.

The way he conducted himself in front of the Master was truly a lesson to learn for all of us, as he instantaneously discovered a true Guru and a Master just in few minutes of the meeting, with feelings of complete surrender & devotion and all the while conferring all his accomplishments to his own Guru. It was truly a sight to be cherished and learn from, as it opened our hearts and further reinforced our conviction and love towards our own Master.

Life Expo - 24th November 2013, World Trade Centre Mumbai

'International Festival for Holistic Living' by Life Positive magazine, with Dadashreeji's Valedictory address

This address was given following two days conference cum workshop on spirituality, healings, techniques, meditation etc. We also had a 'MaitriBodh Parivaar stall' in the exhibition area of this conference, where various products were kept from our own 'Divine Celebration', as well many other things offered by some of our sevaks.

There were around 150 - 200 people, who came to attend this address and each one was left with a deep impact, as Dadashreeji spoke for about 45 minutes, followed by a brief process along with meditation. The address was targeted for the spiritual aspirants and Dadashreeji highlighted how spirituality has become a 'spiritual burden' to many, with people lost in the path itself and the path being given more importance than the goal.

He reiterated the importance of having a direction, understanding the final purpose / end of the path and most importantly the role of a true Guide/Master in this journey, as this path is to reach the highest Truth and is most subtle. As usual our Master revealed some of the precious secret gems of wisdom, as to how one needs to know the Divine - communicate with the Divine - and finally experience the Divine and all this with such simplicity and heart-touching examples, it left us all with awe, pride and surrender. A dhyan session was conducted at the end. In this short interaction itself, people had an amazing experience and were left craving for more.

To some of us who watched our Master on stage realized, that here is our true Guide who has so much to give, exuding fathomless love (we can't even imagine) to all in front of him and how HE watched us all and came down to our level, making spirituality so simple and uncomplicated.
