

From the Editor's Desk

Beloved Parivaar,

As the year comes to a close, the month of November saw a number of events, Bodh 1 and 2 were conducted in various cities in India, Europe and also at our sacred Ashram at Jamrung village – apart from many Skype darshans for the benefit of seekers in Europe. This needed working tirelessly and keeping up very late through the night by our Master and Divine Friend Dadashreeji, ensuring that the European seekers were not inconvenienced due to the time difference between Europe and India – what better example can a Master set for his followers! It makes one wonder whether it's the Master working for the disciple or vice versa!

The month concluded with an amazing new process, a benediction of love appropriately named 'Madhur Milan' which as the name suggests – is our Divine Friend and Master Dadashreeji's blessings and unbounded unconditional love – manifest solely for the happiness of his devotees. Dadashreeji's message was simple – of 'acceptance' of one's own self as we are without judgement. The other was 'giving'. The more we give the more Divinity will shower Grace upon us.

Dadashreeji exemplifies love, more love and yet more love. He exhorts us to spread love to mankind for that is the need of the hour as he is the last hope for mankind. It is incumbent upon us his devotees to fructify the Master's vision for the benefit of mankind. Let us all come together and work hard to bring about a heaven on earth and make our Master proud of us.

Madhur Milan (30th November)

The last day of November witnessed history in the making. A new chapter was unveiled with the Madhur Milan in New Delhi (literally translated as ‘sweet meeting’). Madhur Milan is an event which will be replicated in over 50 locations in the coming year all over India and Europe. Over 300 fortunate seekers came together for a darshan of the Master at the Chinmayya auditorium where our Divine Friend Dadashreeji explained in his inimitable way how to achieve the Absolute in this very life by just allowing him to help us and by spreading the message of love. He exhorted us to accept ourselves without judging ourselves and to give love and seva to society. The more we give the more we would get in return. Thereafter a sublime process was conducted by the Master through Mitras and Maitreyis which sent the entire audience into loving rapture and delight as everyone swayed and danced to the music and Bhajans by Maitreyi Prakriti.

Darshans in Europe

November saw Dadashreeji’s first Darshan via video communication. The darshans started from Moers (in Germany) to Kassel, to Munich followed by Berlin. 217 attendees joined the darshans and more than 80 new Shrimurti’s were handed over to the seekers in a special ceremony.

A Darshan was conducted in a conference on marine life & mother earth at Vienna, Austria. The highlight – a video message from Dadashreeji on importance of marine species to balance nature & Mother Earth. was viewed by the more than 500 attendees present on location and 4,500 people online. Our Master delivered the importance and impact of the actions taken by each of us to improve our environment.

The next darshan took place in Lucerne, Switzerland and Graz, Austria where more than 50 people came together to experience the Master’s Grace and unconditional love.

BODH – Levels I and II

Bodh Level I (Amritsar):

The Bodh session where 30 seekers participated was held in Amritsar on November 2nd 2014. Each one seemed specially chosen by Dadashreeji to be a part of the transformation process. Many experienced absolute bliss and love for Mahavataar Babaji. People flowed effortlessly. Participants had many beautiful experiences and expressed their wish to meet Dadashreeji in person and receive His Grace and get to know more about the Mission and our Divine Friend.

Bodh Level I (Mumbai):

November 9th 2014 saw a huge transformation in the seekers who attended the Bodh. Their doubts and questions were answered as Grace flowed abundantly. Thank you Dadashreeji for transforming our lives.

Bodh Level I (Delhi):

About 70 Delhites eagerly awaited the start of the 'Bodh'. The event saw a group of very enthusiastic seekers seeking to understand themselves and their purpose in life. Many experienced a steady state of peace after the Shakti Pravaah session. It was indeed a day that brought about a positive transformation to the seekers.

Bodh Level II (ShantiKshetra Premgiri Ashram)

Held at the ashram on 22/23 Nov '14, the second level Bodh was attended by a small yet very powerfully attuned group of seekers who came from the various parts of India. The Bodh began with 'Paduka-Abhishek' – a beautiful devotional process of offerings of various kinds at the lotus feet of the Master, symbolized by the 'padukas', helping one to eventually surrender one's self at His feet and re-establish connection with Divinity. The Final moment arrived when the Master himself appeared to grant all the purificatory energies that would over time, take a complete and deep effect leaving all the seekers offering nothing but gratitude to our Master.

Stress Management Workshop (Pune):

With the supreme grace of our Divine Friend Dadashreeji, a workshop on 'Stress Management' was organized for the staff of Puranik Builders in Pune. The secret of how to lead a happy, stress free life was shared with the attendees, which was followed by a meditation session. During the meditation session, a devotee of Gajanan Maharaj experienced that he was transported to Shegaon in his Master's presence and was truly astounded. With Dadashreeji's grace, the participants experienced peace and tranquility and expressed their desire to meet again.

Dhyaan Session (Mumbai):

A meditation session was conducted at a place offered by a devotee at Shivaji Park, Dadar. Sambodh Dhyaan was introduced to the new participants. The participants experienced bliss and peace. One participant experienced Shiva in different forms; another experienced himself as if he was transported to the Himalayas around a Shiva shrine. The participants truly experienced peace on an experiential level.

Children's Day Celebration (Delhi):

Delhi YGPT Team started with the Budding Bliss initiative with the Children's Day Celebration. The celebration comprised of games, tattoo making, and dry picnic for the homeless children near Signature Towers, Gurgaon. It was a really memorable event; and the smile on the faces of the little angels was etched in the hearts of the youths forever.

Post event, classes are being conducted for the children everyday, since 17th November, to help them read, write and communicate better and also provide them with essential Life Skills.

Maitri Session (Amritsar):

A wonderful Maitri session for about 100 teachers of Holy Heart Presidency School in Amritsar was conducted by one of our Maitreyis. The teachers were able to instantly relate to our Maitreyi as a woman who is leading a rich and complete life balancing her material and spiritual needs. The teachers opened out their hearts flooded with emotions. Thus emptied, the teachers readied themselves for the dhyaan session which filled them with immense love – an emotion, they felt right to the core of their being.

Medical Camp (Amritsar):

YGPT- Amritsar organized a medical camp at the Attari Sahib Gurudwara in Amritsar on 30th Nov'14. More than 300 people took benefit of this medical camp. Along with the general health check-up, the bone density and blood sugar tests were also conducted. As a gynecologist was also present; women came in large numbers to take benefit of this drive. All glory to Babaji and Dadashreeji for giving this opportunity to serve our brethren.

From a devotee . . .

*Like a mother yearns to be with her children
Dada's cry of love is reaching out to all
Kindling the flame of love in every heart
It is only He who can transform by His Grace - The Alchemist
Such is the Power of Pure Unconditional Love
It is like a deluge - powerful, all consuming and unstoppable
Taking all in its way
Breaking all the boundaries we have built around ourselves
Dissolving all our I-identities
Leading us to Self Realisation and the experience of Oneness of this Infinite creation*

Various Maitri and Mass Meditation sessions were held in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi, Amritsar, and across Europe.

Regular weekly sessions of our Parivaar now start in Thane, which will take place every Thursday. Delhi and NCR would also witness multiple Maitri Sessions on the 7th of December in Sector-14 Gurgaon, Vasant Kunj in South Delhi, Vivek Vihar in East Delhi, and Janakpuri in West Delhi.

Message from our Divine Friend Dadashreeji

Dear Friends,

It has truly been a divine and blissful year for our parivaar. Each and every member of our parivaar has offered their best in delivering the message to the world. Memories of each day, week and month would always remain with you as learnings, love filled and cherished memories for a prosperous life ahead. Surprisingly, the year has ended quickly – so engrossed were all of in seva, that we did not even notice the passing of time. Let this year end on a Divine note. We as a parivaar are committed to assist, guide and serve humanity.

Let us celebrate this month through an act of service by each one of us. Selfless service is one of the core values of our parivaar – something each of us has been following. As you all know, unless you give to society, you cannot receive. The simplest act of service brings profound transformation in your life. Through seva not just you – but society itself is transformed. You free yourself from all bindings. Your consciousness is cleansed and purified within. Divine Grace follows and is showered on you abundantly.

It is only through selfless service that you become a part of the divine – there is no other way. You are free to offer anything that you feel to the needy. Remember, to serve someone is a feeling within and not just a mechanical act of providing help to the person. If there is no feeling within – do not do it. If you still do it – do not consider it as service.

Know that the service thus rendered for the benefit of others; is nothing but your offerings of love at the lotus feet of the Divine. Do not consider yourself as a doer of the service rendered. I have seen many people who today, are recognised as genuine helpers or great servants of society and Divinity. People praise them as large hearted individuals helping the downtrodden and suppressed people. These 'helpers' forget that their motivation in helping others is nothing but their craving for the recognition they get. It is the people's respect and attention they look for – while doing seva. Many of them remain unaware of this fact, till they go through a critical situation or through Grace in their lives. If personal recognition is the reason for your offering of service, you do not enjoy the result of true seva. Instead one falls into the well of suffering, questioning the self; what did I receive after helping so many? Know well, that true service is a passionate feeling – truly personal and an offering at the feet of the Divine; do not claim to be the doer. So much so, free yourself even from the resultant benefit that you might receive later.

I request you all to serve someone selflessly – a stranger or a known person. Do not differentiate between people or seva while helping. As the year 2014 closes, let each one help at least one individual. End this year with true seva. Keep this seva personal without sharing with others. Let this seva become part of your being.

I bless you all with prosperity, good health, happy relations and bliss in the coming year 2015. Let there be a showering of divine gifts in the coming year.

Love and Blessings!

Dadashreeji
